PER CURIAM.

Edward Wright appeals the district court's<sup>1</sup> judgment entered upon a jury verdict in favor of defendant in this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action. For reversal, Wright argues the district court impermissibly seated an eight-member jury. We disagree. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 48 (court shall seat jury of not fewer than six and not more than twelve members). In addition, Wright's complaints concerning his counsel are not grounds for
